Eliminate Poverty Meeting Set For Glades Area

The Economic Opportunity Program encourages communities to develop projects to eliminate poverty. A Glades County community action program may be this through developing employment opportunities, improving human performance, motivation, and productivity, or bettering the conditions under which people live, learn and work. The aim of community action is not merely improvement in the standard of life of the poor, but provision of opportunities and assistance needed to enable poor people to move into the mainstream of American life.

A preliminary conference to determine community interest in the Glades area of Palm Beach County will be held April 8th, 8:00 p. m. at the Glades Office Building, Highway 441 between Belle Glade and Pahokee. All government and voluntary organizations, business, labor, churches, schools, and other civic organizations are invited to send representatives to this conference to begin the attack on poverty in the Glades. For further information call Ben Hyton 995-2911.

Big "B" King Cattle Ranch Here

South Bay Clerk Attends FICUS

City Clerk of South Bay has returned from a short course for municipal employees in Gainesville sponsored by the Florida League of Municipalities through FICUS — Florida, Institute for Continuing University Studies, and brought home a certificate of proficiency in the subjects for which he enrolled, finance and administration.

South Bay Commissioner Grigsby Resigns On Account of Ill Health

"Because of my health, my activities are curtailed to the point where I cannot render the services to the City in the manner I feel that I should," says Grigsby, former Mayor and Commissioner in his fourth year in South Bay. "I have enjoyed my work as Commissioner," continues the former letter of resignation, "and wish to express the pleasure it has been to work with each of you."

In reviewing the accomplishments of the City during his association, the former Commissioner referred to the City Water System, expected to be completed during May, and the acquisition of a recreation area, boat ramp and a hard surfaced road to the installation, through cooperation with other agencies, including the County Commission. The formal resignation was dated March 7th and accepted by the Commission on March 25th.

Rev. Fenton Loses Toe In Lawn Mower Accident

Rev. James Fenton, pastor of First Baptist Church, South Bay, was mowing his lawn early Tuesday night, when he stumbled over an object in the yard and fell over on the machine, cutting his toes. He was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital, where his large toe had to be completely removed and half of the one next to it.

It was his last night of getting along fine on Wednesday.

King Ranch of Kingville, Texas and Big "B" an operating corporation of Walter Himecock, Jr., an owner of S & H Green Stamp, formerly concluded their merger of operations on a 30,000-acre tract of land in the southern part of Palm Beach County's Glades lands, Wednesday.

The announced purpose of the combined operation is to produce a strain of Florida Santa Gertrudis, America's only native breed of cattle.

"The Santa Gertrudis was developed in the climate of Texas," said John Armstrong, an official of King Ranch; we have a herd in Pennsylvania and one in Kentucky, which have become acclimated to these locations.

"Now, with Kingville's heifers and selected Sires of the parent herd, we expect to produce a strain in Florida."

"One of the features of the Santa Gertrudis is tolerance for humid tropical and sub-tropical climates, in addition to its favorable proclivities for reproduction and maintenance of line characteristics," a Santa Gertrudis enthusiast says.

Arthur Pancoast of Panola is an oldtimer in Santa Gertrudis breeding in Florida, and many south Florida ranches have used Pancoast cattle in cross breeding.

Some 12 Kingville heifers have recently arrived at the ranch and are being acclimated to local pastures and acquainted with their new surroundings.

Grasses of the community, including Saint Augustine as a major item, have already been planted on King "B," and thus.

Visitors Hours Must Be Observed To Aid Patients

Chairman Herman Close of the Glades General Hospital informs us: "We have been generous in overlooking late visitors to patients in the hospital heretofore, but are faced with the fact that the nurses find it difficult to administer to their patients, especially in the detail necessary to reading them to the night, and must insist that regulations be followed — 10:00 a. m. 'til 5:00 p. m. for visitors."

We are informed that in special cases permission may be had from the Administrator, or a request by the attending physician will be granted for non-routine visits.

As one oldtime Glades cattleman put it: "The combination of a major figure of Wall Street and the know-how of the King Ranch, combining the economies of investment and the 100-year professional experience on two continents, including seasonal grazing permits in all the United States, gives the cattle business in the Glades a most substantial support — a basic agricultural endeavor."

Sgt. Thomas C. Hodges Lends Aid To Canal-Road Hazard Program

As Safety Educational Officer of St. Johns County, St. Lucie and Indian River counties, Sgt. Tom Hodges has exhibited unusual leadership qualities," committee chairman Henry Earwood said in speaking of the progress made to date on the Canal-Road Hazard program. "He has shown genuine personal as well as professional interest in helping with this safety matter of Highway Canal deaths."

Continuing his praise for the FHP officer Earwood explained that Hodges has gone to all limits to attend all committee meetings and through his connections has assembled most of the information the committee has presented to groups they have been able to reach in their studies for safety measures.

"He is a strong advocate of spoil bank protection as a practical matter and can substantiate this plan with percentage and proof data he has collected over the years from his own personal work as well as from records of the patrolmen in this area."

Spill banks are being given strong consideration as an immediate measure at minimum expense in safeguarding lives along the highways bordering the canals.

Earwood continued: "In his public appearances he has demonstrated clarity of purpose and sincerity in trying to effect safety measures. Above all he's a clean gentleman and hard working state employee."

Sgt. Thomas C. Hodges has been with the Florida Highway Patrol for 12 years, the past six years as Safety Officer over the five county area of Palm Beach, Martin, Okeechobee, St. Lucie and Indian River counties.

Since coming to this area in January of 1953 he has been assigned to two National American Legion Conventions, assigned to aid at the Governor's Conference in Miami in 1953. He has worked with CBS on a nationwide program on Traffic Safety.

"I feel the most important thing I have done is to have helped in my small way on the Canal-Road Hazard program," Sergeant modestly said, "and I am sure pleased if I have contributed in a small way to save someone from losing his life in one of our canals," he concluded.

A native of Palatka, Florida, Hodges graduated from high school, Hodges chose Submarine Service with the Navy, serving for four years. Following his discharge he attended the University of Florida leaving after a year and a half to join the Florida Highway Patrol, stationed first in Ft. Walton, Jacksonville, and later in the Bradenton-St. Petersburg area before transferring to Daytona Beach. "While working the highways and byways of Volusia County, I was elected to go to Chicago, Illinois and represent the FHP at the 1953 National American Legion Convention," Hodges reminisced.

The Safety Officer is married "to a girl from my home town" and the father of three girls and lives with his family at 18 Longfellow Drive in Palm Springs.

Weaver Secures 56.2 Acre Park Site

Application has been made to the II Board by the County for a tract of land between the Hoover Dike and new US No. 27, containing some fifty odd acres of land," says County Commissioner "Bud" Weaver, "the purpose of a Park and the desirability and the need for such a park along US No. 27 for the use of Glades citizens and the thousands of visitors who trek this important route."

The Commissioner points out that "such a park between Clewiston and Lake Harbor is greatly advantageous, so that access points may be had, and parking provided for those who want to fish in the Okeechobee Waterway and Lake."

"Boat launching slabs should be provided at strategic points also, so that the Big Lake fishing may be enjoyed."

Tentatively, it is reported, the County Commission will assume the sponsorship for the development of the proposed park, with the possibility of cooperation of other agencies interested in fish and wildlife. The Commissioner requested diversion of a fund of $5,000 provided by the County for use at Lake Harbor towards the access road from US No. 27 to the South Bay boat ramp already built by the Fish and Wildlife folks.

The Commissioners' thinking is that the proposed park west of Lake Harbor will have included in it's plans provision for over-the-dike access to boat

Florida Junior Chamber Of Commerce Merit Scholarship Program Underway

Florida Jaycees and Florida Consumer Finance Association, recognizing the need for more and better trained teachers in the State, co-sponsored the "Merit Scholarship for Teaching" program to encourage qualified students to enter the teaching profession "to help maintain and increase the standard of education in our state."

The Florida Consumer Finance Association, representing approximately 700 small loan companies in Florida, donated $2,000 for the scholarship, $100 for second place and $50 for third place.

The State Department of Education, which endorses the program, mailed over 10,000 applications to every high school in Florida. Additional blanks were distributed by the Florida Consumer Finance Association, the Florida Jaycees and the Florida Education Association.

The Florida Jaycees are sponsoring the "Merit Scholarship for Teaching" contest again this year under the direction of state chairman Bob Reid, of the Miami Jaycees, assisted by Al DeMarco of the Florida Consumer Finance Association, Milton McKay, president of the Belle Glade Jaycees, and Chairman Andrew Baglioni, have formulated plans to conduct this worthwhile contest in Belle Glade. Pelton Morris, principal of the Belle Glade High School, and Therrill Luke, Guidance Counselor, have assured the local Jaycees that many high school seniors are anxious to participate in this year's contest. Deadline for local contest is April 17, 1955.

The Florida Jaycees wish to thank the following for their interest and support in this worthwhile project: The Florida Consumer Finance Association, the State Department of Education, the Future Teachers Club of Florida, and the Florida Education Association.

Longer Sale Hours Beaten

City officials insist that some 2500 to 3000 freeholders are eligible to register in B-the-Glades, and they must qualify by having an equitable interest in real property. Again, of the registered a mere 38 percent, approximately actually voted.

Anyhow, the Church is pleased, and many other substantial citizens, and the City Fathers have an answer to their problem.

With some 1,100 freeholders, only 346 showed up to exercise the right. Belle Glade's straw vote Tuesday defeated, for the second time, a proposal to allow liquor stores longer hours to operate by a 5/2 to 1 margin.

A strict interpretation of the proposed voting rights law now before the US Congress through the White House, Belle Glade will be among the first to enjoy (?) a federal Registrar.

'Blind Man' Robbed Of Paper Monies

"'Bout time I get up to where I can spell able, something happens!" Will Spates — better known as "The Blind Man" — told The Herald Wednesday.

It's a fact Spates is having more than his share of bad luck. For the second time this year he has been robbed by his newspaper sales collection by a cowardly thief entering his home.

Monday, Spate reports, he returned to his home at 116 NW 18th Street to change his trousers which were too warm for winter. He laid them on his bed and went into the bathroom, returning to find pants, billfold and money gone. He reports he was carrying street sales collected, totalling $90.00.

Seems even a scoundrel of the lowest order could at least leave an 'even Stephen' type of victim.

Faithful and hard-working, 64-year old Spate has sold Belle Glade Herald and dailies in Belle Glade for 25 years or more.

Parishioners Honor Father Fenech

Sunday, March 28 marked the 15th year anniversary of Father Francis X. Fenech's ordination as a priest. At 3 p. m. the celebration opened with solemn benediction at which he bestowed his blessing.

The parishioners presented him with a Spiritual Bouquet of communion, masses and rosaries. Refreshments and reception was held at the Church Hall. Guests at the speakers' table were Father Connolly and Father Bee from Fort Lauderdale; Father Henry from Okeechobee; Father Hostler from Clewiston; and Father Jose Luis Hernandez, assistant priest in Belle Glade.

Father Hernandez, who gave an interesting biography of Father Fenech, introduced Dr. John Grady, who acted as Master of Ceremonies. Father Fenech, was born on the Isle of Malta in 1925 and his native city was completely destroyed during the second World War. He studied at the University of Malta and later on at Malta's Catholic Seminary. After spending some time in Australia he was sent to Indochina including Viet Nam.

In 1953 he was assigned to the Miami Diocese and served under Monsignor Berry as assistant priest at St. Patrick's. Later he was assigned to Sebring and then to Belle Glade.

All that is seen today around St. Philip Benizi Church, the lovely landscape, the hall, and the convent for the Sisters, has been accomplished since his assignment here.

Mr. Modecki made the presentation of the Spiritual Bouquet to Father Fenech with an appropriate poem. Father Fenech expressed gratitude to all his parishioners, thanking them for recognizing him as a priest and Master, (teacher) and expressed his thanks for the offering and the prayers.

Receiving at the church hall in addition to Father Fenech were Sister Priscilla, Sister Mary Joachim, Sister Loretto, Sister Rose Anthony and Sister Socorro.

Mrs. Laura Lockmiller, president of the Altar Society, served tea and Father Fenech cut the cake. Over 100 parishioners were in attendance.

Mrs. Imogene Fontaine Surprised With Farewell Party By BPW Membes

The National Cancer Control Drive gets underway in the Glades today, and Mrs. Imogene Fontaine, who acted as first Cancer Drive chairman in Belle Glade, regrets she won't be helping.

A faithful civic and church worker in the Glades for many years, Mrs. Fontaine has been forced to give up her former activities as she has been confined to her home due to illness for the past four years.

But these are bright days for Imogene. Saturday she will leave by plane for Louisville, Kentucky to spend several months with her daughter, Sister Jara Claire, who is a professor at Nazareth College, Nazareth, Kentucky.

Mrs. Fontaine was Belle Glade Business and Professional Women's Club president for several years and served as chairman of every appointive committee. When BPW sponsored the first Cancer Drive in Belle Glade, Imogene as chairman, collected $1,647.11, exceeding the quota set for that year.

She was happily surprised Monday night when a group of BPW members visited her, presenting her with a lovely gift for her trip. Coffee and cookies were served and an enjoyable evening spent reminiscing. Members who gathered to wish her safe and pleasant journey and stay, were Louise Ellis, Helen Morris, Marie Causey, Lula Bailey, Margaret Massey, Vera Mathewson, Ross Nash, Juanita Craft, Iversie Ashley, Helen Hart and Kathleen Livingston.

Girl Scout Cookie Sales Top 1964

The annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale was concluded on Saturday, March 20 and final figures for the Custard Apple Neighborhood of Belle Glade show a total of 256 cartons, or 3072 boxes sold for the two week period. This is an increase over the 1964 sale of 13 cartons. The greater part of the profits from the sale are earmarked Council-wide for development of camp facilities, especially at the established Girl Scout Camp Welaka near Jupiter, for repair and maintenance and repair of camping equipment, purchase of new tents for troop camping, and assistance for selectees for International and National Girl Scout opportunities such as the Round-up to be held in July in Idaho.

A portion of the profits goes to the local troop treasuries directly for their own use. This year, for the first time, these profits will be mailed back to the troops involved instead of the amounts being deducted before the proceeds of the sale are sent in to the council office. Local troops No. 41, 62, 133, 264, and 281 which are the Junior and Cadette troops were involved in the sale and they will receive a total of $210.50 which will be divided on the basis of number of cartons sold. Troop 41 which sold by a considerable margin the largest number of cartons will receive the largest check.

Troop Cookie chairmen for the sale were: Troop 41, Mrs. William Thiebaut; Troop 62, Mrs. C. A. Ryan; Troop 133, Mrs. Vernon Dexter; Troop 264, Mrs. J. M. Davis; and Troop 281, Mrs. Carl Dean. Mrs. Robert Allen, Jr., was the neighborhood cookie chairman and Mrs. William Lemley of Lake Worth was the Council cookie chairman this year.

All who participated in the sale wish to express their appreciation to the parents and to the general public for their support of this annual Girl Scout money-making event.

Junior Girl Scout Troop 41 Activities

As a service project for their meeting place at St. John's Episcopal Church, the members of Junior Girl Scout Troop 41 voted last week to purchase rubber "feet" for the chair legs in their meeting room. The motion to do so was made by Jessie Livingston and seconded by Becky Smith.

Reports were given to the troop on the personal health badge by Dory Almon and on the musician badge by Suzanne Motes. Sharon Thiebaut reported on and showed a collection of souvenirs and things of interest from places she and her family have visited in Florida. The "Its Patrol" taught the troop a song entitled "Mit My Hands on Myself."

Some of the girls have been working on the toy maker badge and sent toys they had made to the Florida Methodist Children's Home. A letter of thanks from the home was read to the troop.

New patrol leaders were elected as follows: Dory Almon, Peggy Baughman, Jean Wolf, and Heather Harris. Jean Leavitt, reporter

Donna Connell and Sandy Winterwood made deviled eggs. Kathy Smith made chicken salad sandwiches.

Several of us made up new words to a tune to sing at Achievement Day. Four are working on a talent act and others are preparing exhibits and demonstrations. Five of us are sewing outfits to model in the dress revue.

We also worked on our project record books. This week Marion Morris and Tina White made cocoa loafers for refreshments.

WAITING FOR HANDOUTS

What is the ultimate effect of a welfare state on the individual? A striking and unusual little editorial which recently appeared in the Richmond Virginia, News Leader helps answer that question. "In Mount Rainier National Park, Wash., a ranger cautions visitors against feeding the animals. The ranger explains that deer grow accustomed to visitors' handouts and lose the ability to fend for themselves. Bears, he says, come to believe that free food is their due and become greedy and violent if they don't get it."

Chipmunks and squirrels congregate where handouts are supplied, and thus upset the balance of nature. "There is a lesson here for people — and for their governments."

There certainly is — and it's about the most important lesson we can learn. The welfare state is the enemy of individual pride, individual responsibility, individual initiative and individual freedom. It makes for a faceless mass of human statistics, waiting simply for handouts from their masters.

Uncle Dan Says

Dear Mister Editor:

The fellers at the country store Saturday night was giving Ed Doolittle a birthday send off. Ed reached the store and ten mark Thursday and the fellers was taking note of the event.

Actual, what they give Ed was a hard time. Clem Webster, fer instance, said the Lord had to be mighty forgiving to let a feller live to be 70 when he had voted the Republican ticket fer 49 year. It was all in good fun and Ed was enjoying himself and had a answer fer all the cracks the fellers was taking at him, along with a few observations he ask to git on the record.

First off, Ed said is a strong Baptist, allowed as how if John the Baptist had lived in these times he would've been a shouting Republican, might even have run fer President. Ed said making it to 70 was sorer like a mill, going round and round. He was getting the job done, but like old Dobbin, it was beginning to tell on him as the years rolled by.

Zeke Grubb ask Ed if he thought he'd make it to 80 and Ed said he was like the old widower taking the marriage vows fer the fifth time. When somebody ask the widower if he thought he'd make it he said, "Always have, always have."

Ed was shore he'd make it to 80 provided President Johnson didn't give him too much medicare and the Democrats didn't put no age limit on a feller in the "Great Society."

Somebody ask Ed the usual question about what he figured was the secret to his long and healthy life and Ed had a unusual answer. He reported he had quiet eating hog meat about 10 year ago. He was of the opinion freezer lockers would add a heap of years to a feller's life in the future. In the years before we had freezer lockers, reported Ed, he had eat so much canned sausage and hog meat that, if he'd have had to have a operation, it would have took a hog doctor to do the job. Nowadays, allowed Ed, folks fill up their freezer locker with veal, fowl, venison and such items. Everybody was mighty happy. Mister Editor, to see Ed make it to 70 and it was a enjoyable season. Fer instance, Ed got in the last crack. He said he just wanted to live to see the day the Democrats could find out what their policy was in Viet Nam and he figured that would carry him over the century mark. I have known Ed fer 38 year and he has been a mighty good citizen. Him and his old lady has raised a fine set of younguns. They got one daughter working in the city that calls dinner "lunch" but they was always one black sheep in ever family. And Ed is one of them old time fellers that carries his change in a snap-open purse. I ain't never saw one of them kind of fellers on relief.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

Washington Report

VOTING RIGHTS BILL DOWNGRADES STATES AND COURTS

Several provisions of the Administration's proposed voting rights bill now before the Congress appear to be deliberate attempts to down grade the states of the Union, by-pass the courts and substitute one-man non appealable decisions for court decrees.

While this legislation as drafted does not adversely affect Florida, I shall vigorously oppose certain sections of the bill when it is debated in the Senate. A glaring example of the unconstitutional aspects of the measure is the three state provision that before a state can secure any redress against unfair treatment accorded it by the sole nonappealable finding of the Attorney General of the United States — a political appointee of the President rather than an elected official — its case must first be presented to an U. S. District Court for the District of Columbia.

In my opinion there could be no more deliberate effort to downgrade the states than this proposed deprivation of their constitutionally-granted right to be heard originally by the Supreme Court itself in any suit affecting them. Part of this bill will take us right back to the long discredited legislation of Reconstruction days of a century ago.

I worked for 14 years before getting my anti-poll tax legislation adopted as the 24th Amendment to the Constitution — but I cannot support many of the provisions of the present bill which would take over in the federal government the control of the election machinery of the states, counties and cities on the order of the Attorney General and without any Court proceeding.

In 1962 a total of 77 Senators, most of whom are presently in the Senate, voted to submit my amendment to the states. This indicated their conviction that even that simple change in the qualifications of voters required an amendment of the Constitution, which so clearly an amendment of the Federal Government to the states the right to fix the qualifications of voters. It is strange indeed that so many of these Senators now take the position that much more far-reaching changes in this same field of voter qualification can be made by statute.

I cannot conceive of the passage of this bill in its present form with all its trouble-making implications for the future.

OFF-SHORE LABOR RESTRICTIONS SLIGHTLY LIBERALIZED

I am glad to report some

Letter to the Editor

Mr. Willard Wirtz
Secretary of Labor
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Wirtz:
We see by the papers you have sent investigators to South Florida to determine why there is a shortage of American Agricultural Labor.

The simple answer is why should modern Americans perform menial labor when with a bit of guile they can draw government relief and coupled with a bit of fishin' and filchin' supply the necessities of life (and with all the spare time on their hands make a substantial contribution to our illegitimate population).

It is imperative that sufficient agricultural labor be imported until machines are perfected to do their work. However, we will still have our unemployed Americans who lack of energy, intelligence, and desire to operate the machines as long as the Great Society will provide.

Very truly yours,
B. A. Roemer

LUTHER JONES REALTOR

slight gains in our continuing battle with the Department of Labor in the matter of using off-shore farm labor to supplement inadequate numbers of domestic workers. On March 18 three days after Senator Smithers and I conferred for over two hours in my office with Secretary of Labor Wirtz, the Labor Department assured us that 1,750 of the off-shore workers who were brought in to assist in harvesting the 1964-65 citrus crop would be available from March 22 until April 15, if needed, to augment the crops of domestic workers (they are working now); and that the remainder of the 3,500 originally certified for this work will also be available until the April 15 expiration date, provided need for them is shown.

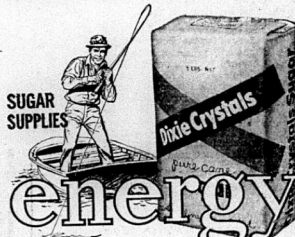

Secretary Wirtz and members of his staff are scheduled to meet with representatives of the growers of the present crop of Valencia oranges in Orlando about April 1 to determine the number of supplemental pickers required after April 15 to harvest this important crop. In another liberalizing action, the Labor Department is permitting the off-shore workers imported by the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association as sugar cane cutters to move from that crop to the harvesting of vegetables, celery, berries and sweet corn until April 15, if need can be shown, without further certification. We have also been advised that the Labor Department's proposed employer-employee contracts will not be required between now and April 15. These concessions are helpful and are appreciated, but they are by no means a complete answer to the problem — either now or for the future.

We shall continue to strive for a permanent policy that will eliminate the uncertainty and huge dollar losses suffered by many of our growers this year.

AGRICULTURE SUBCOMMITTEE HEARINGS ON RESEARCH FACILITIES END
Public hearings have ended on the proposed closing of some 20 agricultural experiment facilities and a larger number of experimental projects throughout the country, which hearings were conducted by the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee for Agriculture under my chairmanship. We are now studying the record preparatory to submitting recommendations to the full committee.

The hearings opened on February 25, and the earlier sessions were devoted to the testimony of Department of Agriculture witnesses. They were followed by public witnesses, many of whom submitted detailed statements for the record, and the hearings closed on March 19.

Preliminary study of the testimony indicates that some of the research facilities scheduled for closing because of budgetary requirements have probably outlived their usefulness, but I believe that others are important and should be continued.

Senior Hi-Lites

Senior Hi-Lites this week are Lee Anne Herrhilly and Donald Wiley (Beetle) Bailey. Both of these active Seniors participated in the Senior Play.

Lee Anne, Betty Lou to play goers, is a perky little 5' gal with auburn hair and brown eyes who lists as her favorite pastimes: boys, baseball games and boys. Dramatically, she sees herself driving around in a green Mustang, but for now she just drives around in her parents' Pontiac listening to "Let It Be" on the radio.

"My Goodness," she was once heard to say, "How can I study for my favorite class (speech) and see my favorite sport (football) at the same time?"

An active member of Beta Club, Future Teachers, and the Band, (she's a majorette, you remember), Lee Anne says her

Books On A Sea Of Wisdom

Open a book. Do you see scrawls of words that mean nothing to you? Then uncover them with a dictionary. Does the book seem uninteresting? Then make it interesting — associate it with something you are familiar with. Do you find it hard to understand? Then stop for a minute — put yourself in the place of the main character.

A book should do more than just inform — it should entertain. How can a history book entertain? George Washington — our first President; Francis Marion — the daring "Swamp Fox"; Benedict Arnold — traitorous villain; and Florence Nightingale — a healing angel — all these lively characters are a part of our history. The history of their lives provide realistic entertainment.

BOOK OF THE WEEK—
The Invisible Man by H. G. Wells

Under the mask, the wig, the bandages, there is . . . empty space. Not a ghost, but a real man — a mad scientist who has discovered the secret of making himself invisible.

Will it make him the most powerful person in the world as he is dreamed, or prove a curse beyond his wildest nightmares?

Here is H. G. Wells at his fantastic best — a story filled with humor, imagination, and suspense that will delight not only science fiction fans but all lovers of fine, fast-paced writing.

NOTES—
Judy Calvert, a new junior from California, is an excellent library assistant. She has been placing magazines on the shelves during second period.

Band Qualifies For State Contest

The Ram Band under the direction of Mr. Fred Stevens scored high in district contest on March 25. Gale Sperry, University of South Florida; Paul Gustaf, Sebring High School; and O. J. Koushaar, University of Miami were the judges.

The three superiors in concert performance and two superiors and an excellent in sight reading were the band's reward for the performance in the gym last Thursday morning.

With these scores and the previously earned superior in marching, the band qualified to attend the state contest in May.

About New Courses

This year there has been several new courses added to the curriculum. Among these are humanities. Here are several students' views of the course.

"Humanities? Blah! I don't even know what it is," said one student.

"I like it sometimes (doodling on desk). It helped me learn to study," said another.

"My favorite part is Mrs. Earwood, but I also like the other two teachers. Mr. Stevens is real funny, sometimes," said a third.

"Sometimes it's real interesting. Some times it's real boring. Sometimes I like it. I'm so glad I took it," said a fourth.

"It's my favorite course. I like Mrs. Smith the best," said a fifth.

"It's wild!" said a sixth.

But the real clincher came when one student said, "You can sum it all up in the grade I made on the last test 'F'."

April Fool

"Grandpa," whispered a little girl of about three. "Where did April Fool come from?"

"Well, Honey," replied her grandfather. "A long time ago there was a little boy who wanted to be great when he grew up; so he began thinking about what he was going to be. I think I'll fly the first airplane; an second thought, I'll leave that to my friends, Orville and Wilbur Wright over at Kittyhawk. Maybe I could build the first automobile, but Henry Ford knows more about those things. I know what I'll do — I'll make people happy. I'll make people laugh."

"So," continued the grandfather, "the little boy learned everything he could about making people laugh as he grew up."

Tips For Teens

TABLE MANNERS:
Wait until your hostess or your mother is seated before you sit down.

Place your napkin on your lap.

Use silverware in the order you find it at your place, beginning with the outside piece.

Eat quietly and chew with your mouth closed.

Keep arms and elbows off the table.

Keep your chair squarely on the floor, never tipped or tilted.

Take moderate-sized mouthfuls.

Talk to the people seated at your right and at your left at the table.

When in doubt, do as your hostess does.

Weekly Thoughts

If someone else is doing your thinking you're probably doing someone else's work.

A man can fail many times but the last failure will start to blame someone else.

Elbow grease comes in cans not can't.

People are lonely because they build walls instead of bridges.

The chains of habit are generally too small to be felt until they are too strong to be broken.

Most happiness is overlooked because it doesn't cost anything.

The only gracious way to accept an insult is to ignore it; if you can't top it laugh at it; if you can't laugh at it it's probably deserved.

Wisdom is not knowing what we want and killing ourselves to get it.

The odd thing about trouble is it usually starts out being fun.

Golf Match
Three losses and one tie was the result of a golf match against Forest Hill and Riviera, Willis lost to Lane Creech and Iván Willis lost against Forest Hill, Jeff Altman and Dennis Sider lost against Riviera; Jean Jackson and Paul Parker tied Forest Hill; and Jody Averill and Brenda Webster lost against Riviera.

Household Linens, 2. Bathroom and Bedroom Linens, 3. Dining Linens, 4. Interior Decorating, 5. Upholstering and 6. Window Treatments. Sample products will be displayed to the students so they can see the advantages and disadvantages of buying each.

The Home Ec. class plans to leave at the end of third period. There will be five cars with chaperones making this trip.

Stylebook Adapted

The Journalism class has adapted a stylebook to be used by future Journalism classes. It describes policies and mechanics to be used in following additions of the RAM-PAGES.

Patterned after the Associated Press stylebook, it borrows excerpts from the work of various Journalism authors.

The main purpose of this stylebook is to provide rule for reporters to follow so that there will be consistency in our paper.

In the future, Journalism students will be expected to follow these policies in writing their articles.

Silence

When I am alone, I feel the silence of the breathing air. I hear no sound but I feel its smiling beauty.

Silence can sometimes be a wonderful thing. You can think clearly and do things with more ease.

When words of bitterness spit out from the mouth of others, silence seems to step in and control the situation.

Silence is a source of contentment and consolation when troubled.

Hours may pass when you seem to be in another world. You read, think, breathe, walk, and talk, and the silence of a dream has control over your mind as darkness steals away the day, and the night becomes still.

Silence seems out of the air. I have known the silence of a broken heart when tears have been shed and there is nothing left but the silent heart to tell one again.

I can feel silence as it approaches, when everyone is gone and not a sound is uttered in the silence of death. When life tends to leave you still, not knowing, breathless, senseless, spiritless.

The silence of a dog grave which holds the silent body so free from noise, free from tears, confusion, troubles, and the smell of flowers about you. The silence of life itself that has been upon the mind of those who fear death and find it hard to live, and steal away into the insanity of complete silence.

Real Courage

What is courage? It is defined as fearlessness. When is a person courageous? We often acclaim a person as being courageous when he does something spectacular such as jumping in the path of a speeding car to save another or diving into water to save someone from drowning when they themselves can't swim.

But is this real courage? Courage is fearlessness. When is a person courageous? We often acclaim a person as being courageous when he does something spectacular such as jumping in the path of a speeding car to save another or diving into water to save someone from drowning when they themselves can't swim.

The soldier who goes forth risking his life doing marvelous feats because his mind has suddenly clicked is not courageous. Yet his country may acclaim him as being a courageous person when he was only afraid and suddenly blacked out.

People sometimes don't know courage when they have it. There is a calm quiet courage. It is the courage which makes a person hold on to his principles. It is the courage of ministers who teach and practice the principles of their religion. The courage of youth who are "one of the crowd," and the courage of the ill and dying are in this category. These are not acts of fear. These people realize fully the dangers and disadvantages, but they are willing to go on because they are truly fearless.

Let us not confuse the reflexes of fear with the quiet calm of courage. Let us know real courage.

Just For The Record

The death rate of heart victims is steadily increasing. Youngsters may be affected as well as adults. Youngsters should consult their physician and get heart examinations often.

How does the doctor find out whether or not you have one of the many different forms of heart disease? Let's suppose you're going to have an examination. Actually, a heart examination is a part of every complete physical examination. Don't worry it's a painless procedure and there is nothing mysterious about it.

There are many techniques and many tests, tools, and methods for observing the patient's condition. However, he uses only the ones you need.

The doctor's first step—a most important one—is to take the history of your past illness and symptoms. Do you have pain in the middle of the chest? Fainting or the ankles? Shortness of breath? Your doctor will want to know when these symptoms occurred, and how long they last.

The doctor uses his eyes, his ears, his sense of touch to get the information he needs about your heart and your blood vessels. The doctor checks your pulse, your blood pressure, your heart rate, your lungs, your scope and your heart pounds, when giving you a physical examination.

It is possible to discover many heart ailments accurately and early. The earlier heart and blood vessel diseases are discovered, the better the patient will be treated. So... protect your heart. Arrange with your doctor for regular health and heart check-ups.

Tips to the Female

Ladies:

Do you have a skin problem when wearing swimsuits and evening clothes? Most clothes of this nature expose your elbows and knees more than others. These parts of the body are main joints and the skin can become rougher here than in other places. Therefore special care should be given so that they will have a feminine touch. The following treatments for these areas should be given and followed often.

Begin with a soft brush, plenty of soap and warm water. Rub in a horizontal direction and then in a circular motion. Rinse thoroughly.

Using a piece of pumice or lemon, elbows and knees should be rubbed until you feel the blood coming when they have it.

After rubbing, it will be necessary to massage the elbows and knees with plain vaseline. These places may be kept soft by using a mild lotion or hand cream.

These treatments may be given to other parts of the body providing they don't cause skin irritations.

It is not advisable to mix lemon with too many different cosmetics because such can easily cause skin disturbances.

Growing Up Mentally

Have you ever wondered what it takes to keep growing mentally? If you haven't, I have given it a critical thought. These are some things you have to do in order to keep growing mentally!

You have to be curious, always looking for more information about things that interest you or puzzle you. You have to keep an open mind. If you ever begin to think that you know something, or that your opinions are the right ones, look out. That's probably a sign you've stopped growing mentally.

You can't ever stop learning. You have to realize there's always something to learn about your job, your hobbies, and the world in which you live. That means you have to continue to read, experiment, listen, study, compare, and talk things over as long as you live.

You have to watch for prejudices. Prejudices are opinions formed without knowing and maintaining all the facts. The moment you allow yourself to think without good reasons, you block your progress toward being truly mentally mature. Do you suppose there will ever be a time when you or anyone else will know all the answers about everything there is to know in this world of ours? Of course not! That's the reason why we don't completely grow up mentally.

No one is ever completely grown up mentally, but one has the opportunity to continue this growth throughout lifetime. One will never learn all but let's learn as much as we can and remember that we don't ever finish growing up because a growth-up has mental growth, physical growth, and emotional growth.

Senior Epidemic

There will be an epidemic at Lake Shore High School for the next few weeks. This epidemic will affect the senior class at Lake Shore High.

WHAT THEY PREPARED?

This epidemic began on Mar. 24, 1964, at approximately 8:35 A. M. that Wednesday morning. The seniors were so sure that it would come so much so that they prepared the needed utensils to keep clean the metals involved in the epidemic.

WHAT WILL BE ITS EFFECTS?

This epidemic will have different effects on different individuals. For the males, it will affect their left hand, fourth finger from the right. It will cause the arm to extend forward and this same finger to extend forward.

For the females, it will effect their right hand and finger located in the same position of the males.

IS THERE A KNOWN CURE?

Yes, there is a known cure for this epidemic. The scientists have no cure, the doctors can't prescribe a medicine that the pharmacists can give only time will cure this epidemic. Along with time, the other known cure is "look-out-us." This cure comes from the retina of the eye fixing itself in a set position on the left hand of males and the right hand of the females, and constantly staring at the hands.

WHAT PROMPTED THE EPIDEMIC?

This epidemic was prompted by the seniors of Lake Shore receiving a piece of metal in the shape of a circle, with a purple crest in the center of it and a scroll with Lake Shore written at the bottom of it in the center of the crest.

WILL IT HAVE ANY PSYCHOLOGICAL EFFECTS ON THE SENIORS?

Yes, it has already and it will cause us feel more like "SENIORS."

"Let's Laugh A Little"

(Taken from the Hub)

Teacher: What is your name, son?

Small boy: "Jude, Sir"

Teacher: You shouldn't use a nick-name. Your name must be Julius.

Next, what is your name?

Second small boy: "Bulious, sir."

Teacher: "Billy, what is a flood?"

Billy: "It's a river too big for it's bridges."

Teacher: "If your mother has a package delivered G. O. D. what do the initials mean?"

Precocious youngster: "Call on Daddy."

So What!

Getting this page out is no picnic.

If we print joke's, people say we are silly.

If we don't, they say we are too serious.

If we clip from other pages, we are too lazy to do it ourselves.

If we don't, we are stuck on our own stuff.

If we stick to the job all day, we ought to be hunting up news.

If we get out and try to hustle, we ought to be on the job in the office.

If we don't print contributions we must appreciate a genius.

If we do, the page is full of junk.

If we change a write up, we are too critical.

If we don't, we are asleep.

Now, like it or not, someone will say we swiped this from their paper.

We did. So what!

down in history.

Your friend,

Mimi

Student of Week

Even though a person is small in appearance, he can think high and make himself known for his ability to do. These lines go hand in hand with William Myrick, a 90 lb., 4 ft., 8 inch, eighth grader at Lake Shore.

William, a native of Belle Glade, was born August 16, 1951, to Mr. and Mrs. George Myrick of 21 Washington St., Okeechobee Center.

William is the treasurer of his homecoming (8-1). He has made the last six-weeks' honor roll. His favorite subject is Mathematics and his hobby is participating in and reading the latest about sports.

William got most of his fame last year when he worked diligently as a student Council representative from his homecoming. The future might hold for William Myrick, the Presidency of the Student Council.

Good Manners

The knowledge of knowing how to handle and carry yourself is a lesson that every boy and girl should know. Knowing how to handle and carry himself in great pride will be very helpful to every youngster in his future life.

Knowing how to handle and carry oneself with great dignity has been brought down through the ages by important families. In some families girls were sent off to school to acquire this knowledge of self pride and assurance. In the eighteenth century young boys were sent off to West Point and other high schools of training to learn the art of being a gentleman.

But keep in mind that good schools will not help you acquire polite or advances if you mind you aren't interested in people; and you must make an effort to get along with people.

Today in the twentieth century we have all the opportunities for being young GENTLEMEN and YOUNG LADIES. This highly respectful knowledge is being pushed about by the YOUTH OF our GENERATION.

To be a gentleman these days a fellow has to be a SISSEY or an OUTSIDER with the boys. But can a little COURTESY like open the door for a girl or taking off your hat in the presence of a young lady really make you an OUTSIDER or a SISSEY? NO, BOYS! I haven't forgotten the girls. Girls also have certain "musts." Don't overdo your talking or jump over chairs in public and please some CHEW CHUM in Public. It reflects on your appearance.

So consult good books on MANNERS and accept, and practice what you learn. You will find that good manners pay big dividends in life.

Spring

Welcome to this time of the year known as Spring. When I was very young I often wondered what Spring was. I used to watch the people at Springtime. They were happy and gay.

I used to watch the children playing with joy. I used to watch the birds singing in the trees. Now that I'm much older I gather from those expressions that Spring is the time for happiness.

Spring is the time for love. Spring is the time for the flowers to bloom. Spring is the time when the birds sing beautiful songs in the trees.

Bobcat Roundup

Each week a baseball player will be named slugger of the week. The player who has the most base hits will be named slugger. In case of tie, the player will be judged by runs batted-in and bases stolen during the game. This week, we have selected as slugger of the week Cleo Sears, slugs hit two out of three. Both walks were doubles. He stole two bases and had two runs batted in during the Carver vs. Lake Shore game. This is Sears' fifth and final year of baseball here at Lake Shore High.

Keep the good work up the whole school is behind you.

Charles Walker

Last week Charles Walker was selected as slugger of the week.

Charles hit a single during the top of the third inning. He also had two R. B. I's.

Charles is a Freshman and this is his second year of baseball. Keep up the good work Charles.

Baseball Roundup

LAKE SHORE vs. FT. PIERCE

The Bobcats were the victors after two innings of hard playing. James Freeman scored on a wild pitch. In the third inning the bases were loaded on walks. Charles Walker hit a single and two runs came in. This gave the Bobcats 3-0. Two more points were scored during the fourth inning. Pitchers were James Freeman, Christopher Andrews, Mickey Harrison, James Freeman had one walk five strikeouts and no hits. Andrews, three walks, two strikeouts, and one hit.

Harrison, four strike outs, one walk, and one hit.

Avoid left turns in congested or fast-moving traffic. A turning car is a sitting duck for a rear end collision and frequently forces other cars into dangerous moves.

B. C. Baseball Captain Speaks

To my fellow schoolmates, other members of the Lake Shore Family and well wishers, I would like to give special thanks to you for supporting the first baseball game of the season, Wednesday, March 17, 1965 and cheering us all the way although we were defeated.

Just because we have lost the first game don't think one bit that we have let you down. We are going to have to work hard and to the fact that five inexperienced players were on the starting line up, was one of the reasons that caused the Bobcats to yield victory to the Eagles of Carver High, I feel.

To the inexperienced players, I would like for you to feel confident and know that the Lake Shore High family and old teammates are behind you all the way. All of us are going to have to work hard and not let the family down. Practice, unity, and faith will enable us to have a triumphant season. To coach: Remember we have many more games including Carver again; only one more coach. Remember we have many more games including Carver again; only one more coach. Remember we have many more games including Carver again; only one more coach.

Wiggle
